These documents must be submitted within 45 calendar days from the date of this notice. In order to continue processing your application for Canadian citizenship, we require sufficient documentary evidence of your residence in Canada. The requirement to provide sufficient evidence regarding your residence in Canada can be found in paragraph 3(4)(d) of the Citizenship Regulations.

Pursuant to section 11(9) of the Citizenship Regulations, if we do not receive the supporting documentation within 45 calendar days from the date of this notice, your application will be declared abandoned, your file will be closed and no other action will be taken on your file.

Once your file has been closed, if you are still interested in becoming a Canadian citizen, you will need to submit a new application with new documents and fees.

Yours truly,

Citizenship Officer

Citizenship Judge

WARNING: If you send us a form that has any misleading or fraudulent information on it, you can be charged with a criminal offence, and you may be subject to criminal prosecution and refusal of your application for citizenship. Citizenship obtained by false representation or fraud or by knowingly concealing material circumstances may be revoked.
